Our condolences go to the family of Gary Rodgers. He passed away on April 3 from a brain tumor. Our prayers are with his wife Alice and sister-in-law Susan Rodgers. Service is at Lakewood, tomorrow (4/11) at 10 am.

Joaquín Reyes Parra - (Our missionary in the Dominican Republic) is working with doctors on a treatment plan for heart issues. Surgery may be required.

Ralph Naquín - Had to be admitted to Methodist in Houston on Thursday after a loss of consciousness. As he fell, he hit his head, and doctors want to watch a small bleed in the brain.

Pat Allen - (mother of Jamie Gay) is treating an eye problem which is connected to her Graves' disease.

Ethel Mills - After diagnosis with a benign brain tumor and an opinion to watch and wait, she is having symptoms. Please pray that an MRI can happen soon.

William Filley - (close family friend of the Krebsbachs) had a serious fall but is resisting medical care.

Vicki Johnson - (mother of Linley Glover) Her surgery went better than expected. She is recovering in the hospital and doing well with walking and eating.

Ed Pfalzgraf - (brother-in-law of Joyce Lewis) is recovering from hernia surgery. He is 90 and also has heart issues.

Battling cancer - Lavonda Potts, Rik King, Penny Weckerly, Jo Bryant, Gary Ondras, Jay Plunkett, Salvador Aguirre and Rich Hardegger, Rick Olivares, Tommy Wilson (father of Wes), Ernie Smith, Maggie Stroman

Note from Jeff & Nancy Humberson:

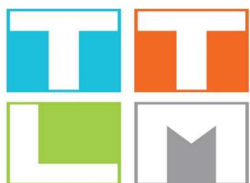

Thank you for all the prayers, hugs, kind words of encouragement, texts, and cards sent my way before and after surgery. You will never know how much they all meant to us both.

Note from the Aubrey, Moncrief & Beebe family:

We cannot begin to express our thankfulness for the outpouring of love and support that has been shown during the passing of Bob. The hugs, phone calls, flowers, food, cards and pure loving memories shared mean more to the family than we will ever be able to convey. May God bless each and every one of you as you have blessed us. God is good!
